COMPLIANCE NOTICE – SECTION 44 WELSH LANGUAGE (WALES) MEASURE 2011

The Office of Communications – Issue Date: 25/07/2016

Section 67 of the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011 provides that the Commissioner is not authorised to require a body to comply with a standard if, and to the extent that, the standard relates to broadcasting. However, broadcasting does not include any activity that is carried out in connection with broadcasting.

Standard Number	Class of Standard	Standard	Imposition Date
1	Service Delivery	If you receive correspondence from a person in Welsh you must reply in Welsh (if an answer is required), unless the person has indicated that there is no need to reply in Welsh.	25/01/2017
2	Service Delivery	When you correspond with an individual (“A”) for the first time, you must ask A whether A wishes to receive correspondence from you in Welsh, and if A responds to say that A wishes to receive correspondence in Welsh you must— (a) keep a record of A’s wish, (b) correspond with A in Welsh when corresponding with A from then onwards, and (c) send any forms you send to A from then onwards in Welsh.	25/01/2017
4	Service Delivery	When you send the same correspondence to several persons, you	25/01/2017

		must send a Welsh language version of the correspondence at the same time as you send any English language version.
5	Service Delivery	If you don't know whether a person wishes to receive correspondence from you in Welsh, when you correspond with that person you must provide a Welsh language version of the correspondence.	25/01/2017
6	Service Delivery	If you produce a Welsh language version and a corresponding English language version of correspondence, you must not treat the Welsh language version less favourably than the English language version (for example, if the English version is signed, or if contact details are provided on the English version, then the Welsh version must be treated in the same way).	25/01/2017
7	Service Delivery	You must state — (a) in correspondence, and (b) in publications and notices that invite persons to respond to you or to correspond with you, that you welcome receiving correspondence in Welsh, that you will respond to correspondence in Welsh, and that corresponding in Welsh will not lead to delay.	25/01/2017
8	Service Delivery	When a person contacts you on your main telephone number (or numbers), or on any helpline numbers or call centre numbers, you must greet the person in Welsh. You must comply with standard 8 in relation to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ any main telephone number (or numbers), or on any helpline numbers or call centre numbers located in Wales; ○ the Welsh language helpline 	25/01/2017

		numbers), or on any helpline numbers or call centre numbers, you must inform the person that a Welsh language service is available.
10	Service Delivery	When a person contacts you on your main telephone number (or numbers), or on any helpline numbers or call centre numbers, you must deal with the call in Welsh in its entirety if that is the person's wish (where necessary by transferring the call to a member of staff who is able to deal with the call in Welsh).	25/01/2017
12	Service Delivery	When you advertise telephone numbers, helpline numbers or call centre services, you must not treat the Welsh language less favourably than the English language.	25/01/2017
14	Service Delivery	When you publish your main telephone number, or any helpline numbers or call centre service numbers, you must state (in Welsh) that you welcome calls in Welsh.	25/01/2017
15	Service Delivery	If you have performance indicators for dealing with telephone calls, you must ensure that those performance indicators do not treat telephone calls made in Welsh any less favourably than calls made in English.	25/01/2017
16	Service Delivery	Your main telephone call answering service (or services) must inform persons calling, in Welsh, that they can leave a message in Welsh.	25/01/2017
17	Service Delivery	When there is no Welsh language service available on your main telephone number (or numbers), or on any helpline numbers or call centre numbers, you must inform persons calling in Welsh (by way of an automated message or other), when a Welsh language service will be available.	25/01/2017
19	Service Delivery	If a person contacts one of your departments on a direct line telephone number (including on staff members' direct line numbers), and that person wishes to receive a service in Welsh, you must deal with the call in Welsh until such point as —	25/01/2017

		(a) it is necessary to transfer the call to a member of staff who does not speak Welsh who can provide a service on a specific subject matter; and (b) no Welsh speaking member of staff is available to provide a service on that specific subject matter. You must comply with standard 19 in relation to any of your departments' direct line numbers (including staff members' direct line numbers): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ located in Wales
20	Service Delivery	When a person contacts you on a direct line number (whether on a department's direct line number or on the direct line number of a member of staff), you must ensure that, when greeting the person, the Welsh language is not treated less favourably than the English language. You must comply with standard 20 in relation to any direct line number (whether on a department's direct line number or on the direct line number of a member of staff): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ located in Wales 	25/01/2017
